*M*r. Eugene Cottrell attended Concord University in Athens, WV. While there, he marched with the world championship finalist Canton Bluecoats Drum and Bugle Corps in 1990 and 1992. In 1992, he was a section leader and soloist for the Bluecoats. After graduation, he taught at West Point Middle and High School in Mississippi as an assistant band director for 3 years. He spent 15 years at Northwood High School (six years concurrently at Horton Middle School) in Pittsboro. During that time period his bands received consistent superior ratings at the middle school and high school levels concurrently. Cottrell was named to Who's Who of America's Teachers in 2001, 2002, 2004 and 2006. In 2005 he was named a National Teacher of the Year by the Mr. Holland's Opus Foundation.

In 2011 he received the Jackson Parkhurst Award for Special Achievement from the NC Symphony. Along with the Maxine Swalin Award for Outstanding Music Educator, these awards recognize NC music teachers who “Make a lasting difference in the lives of students of all abilities and backgrounds, Serve the community in an exemplary manner as a role model in music education, Instill a love for music in children, and inspire students to reach appropriately high musical standards.”

Currently in his 4th year as Director of Bands at Pinecrest High School the Marching Patriots have won several Grand Championships over the past three seasons while receiving all superior ratings over that same time period. The Pinecrest Wind Ensemble has also received superior ratings in grade V and VI. He enjoys family time with his wife, Leslie, and daughters, Madison and Sydney. Mr. Cottrell is also a published photographer and he loves golf way more than it loves him back.

*M*r. David Saleeba Albert started his musical career in Elizabeth City, North Carolina under the direction of Scott C. Callaway playing Trombone, Flute, Bassoon and Percussion in the School Band. He attended Berklee College of Music in Boston Mass during which time he was also a studio drummer. He finished his Music Education Degree at East Carolina University in Greenville, NC and became the Conductor of the Band Program in Elizabeth City after Mr. Callaway retired. Ten years later, he moved to Raleigh, NC, where he was selected to start the Band Program and Chair the Arts Department of Leesville Road High School.

Bands under Mr. Albert's baton have performed at numerous State Conventions and performed in many major cities in the U.S including the Midwest Clinic in Chicago. Il. Mr. Albert retired from North Carolina Public Schools on 1 July 11 with 31 years of service. Mr. Albert has mentored with Buddy Rich and performed with the Dorsey Brothers Orchestra as well as with Butch Miles, Joe Ascione, Milt Hinton, Don Menza, Buddy Baker, and Tommy Newsome. Mr. Albert was a student of the “Tonight Show” drummer, Ed Shaughnessy. Along with teaching, conducting, and performing clinics, Mr. Albert can be heard in a variety of Symphony, Symphonic Band, and Jazz settings as well as being the co-leader of the Albert-Hobbs Big Band.

Mr. Albert served as President of the North Carolina Bandmasters Association and is now Past President of The North Carolina Music Educators Association. He is a member of The American School Band Directors Association and is an Honorary Member of Phi Mu Alpha. In 1998, he was appointed by the Governor of North Carolina to serve on the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards Music Committee to develop the National Standards for NBPTS. He has been a member of the North Carolina Music Educators Association and the North Carolina Association of Educators since 1978. Mr. Albert recently served the North Carolina Symphony as Director of Education.

Mr. Albert is an Endorsing Artist/Clinician for Ludwig/Musser, a division of Conn-Selmer. In addition, he often guest conducts Honor Bands, presents seminars in Student Leadership, and adjudicates festival events.

In June of 2017, Mr. Albert was bestowed the honor of “Director Emeritus” of the Leesville Road High School Band.

Mr. Albert is married to the former Margaret Cowan has two sons, Joseph Taylor and Christopher David and, one step-son, John Christian.
