*T*imothy Parsons is a graduate from the University of North Carolina at Pembroke where he earned a bachelor degree in Music Education and studied percussion under Wayne Campbell, and Dr Tracy Wiggins. While at UNCP, Tim was a member of the Concert Choir, Pembroke Singers, Concert Band, Wind Ensemble, a founding member of the Spirit of the Carolina's Marching band, Percussion Ensemble and University Pep Band.

Tim is currently the Director of Bands at Jack Britt High School in Fayetteville, NC. Throughout his teaching career his Concert Bands have received Superior ratings and his students consistently place in the SEDBA All-District Band and North Carolina Honors Band. His marching band has won numerous First Place awards and have been named Grand Champions at several marching band competitions across the state.

From 2010-2013, he has served as Vice-President for the Cumberland County Band Directors, before taking over as President in 2013. Tim currently lives in Fayetteville with his wife Anna and their dog Ginger.

*D*r. Timothy Meyer Altman is Chair of the Music Department at the University of North Carolina at Pembroke (UNCP). He is the Director of Bands, teaches trumpet, and conducting. He taught instrumental and general music at the elementary, middle school, high school, and university level in Virginia, Wisconsin, Kentucky, and North Carolina. The Varina High School band in Richmond, Virginia, under his direction, was a "Virginia Honor Band" with superior ratings in Marching, Concert, (and Jazz).

The UNCP Wind Ensemble performed at the NC Music Educators Association (NCMEA) conference in 2005, 2008, and 2014 under his direction with guests Robert W. Smith, Jay Bocook, Sam Hazo, Brian Balmages, and Allen Vizzutti. He commissioned new works from Eric Ewazen, James Sochinski, James Hosay, and Kyle Newmaster.

Altman completed his Doctor of Musical Arts (DMA) in trumpet performance at the University of Kentucky. Terry Everson, Frank Hanson, and Allen Bachelder are his principal trumpet teachers. He also holds degrees from Virginia Tech (BA, Music Education), and the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater (MME, Music Education). Tim's father, Edward Altman, was a trumpet player in the Richmond (VA) symphony, a band director, and continues to be a huge influence on his life.

Dr. Altman is an active conductor, clinician, adjudicator, and trumpet performer. He has performed at international conferences (Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic, International Trumpet Guild, etc.) and led the UNCP Trumpet Ensemble to perform at the ITG conference in 2012 and 2014. He performed at the Royal College of Music (London) in 2005, Amman, Jordan in 2008 and 2012 and throughout Italy in 2013. His latest CD "Baroque Music for Two Trumpets, Strings, and Harpsichord" was released in summer 2014. He is presently the principal trumpet for the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra and the Carolina Philharmonic. He has also performed with The Four Tops, The Temptations, Doc Severinsen, Allen Vizzutti, Vince DiMartino, Bruce Hornsby, Al Jarreau, David Sanborn, Martha Reeves and the Vandellas, and many more international artists. Dr. Altman is a Bach performing artist (Conn-Selmer).
